

Good-bye St Kitt's: Hello Niagara Falls

On the last day in St. Catharines I went for a 'good-bye' walk.

I will miss St Catharines, just as I was getting used to finding my way around and exploring 'the good bits'. Definitely a place I would choose to live if there were an option to do so.

If anyone can identify the blue flowers for me I would appreciate it.

N.B. bird: I have a stupid fear of birds so I can't get close at all, that's why that photograph is very blurry – also photoshopped!

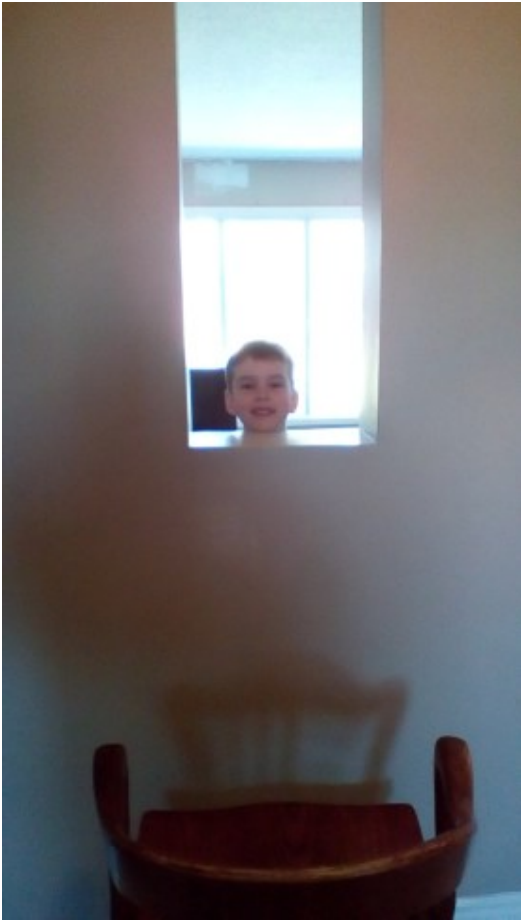

P.S. I would enjoy having a new camera. Any ideas on best buy anyone?

What grandson did next

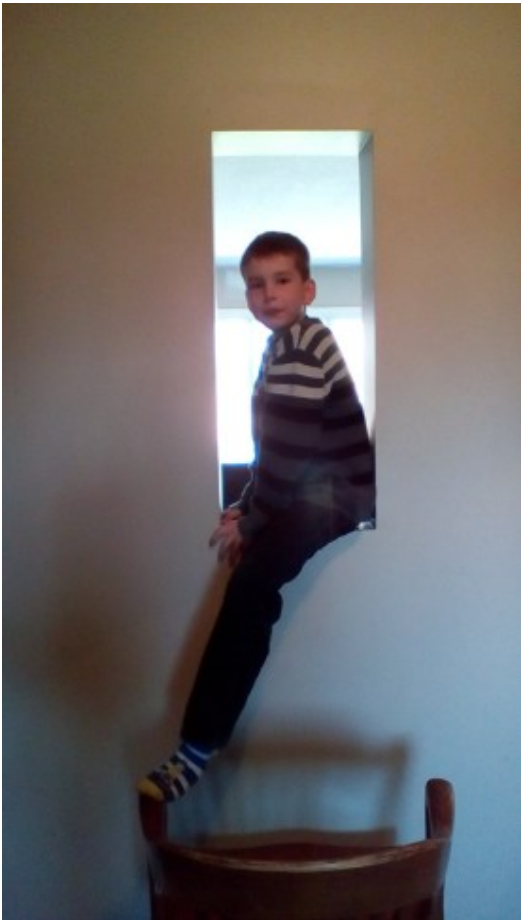

On to the new house

Slowly getting settled. Re-decorating and getting boxes emptied and sorted. Beautiful new kitchen with modern fittings. Lovely basement with laundry area. Internet finally connected – seamless rating 'good'.

After debating what the feature 'hole in the wall' between kitchen and living area was about was finally settled by someone –

Draw me a body!

Perfect 'niche'

Many thanks to the family and friends who made the move easy.
Praying that the house and family will be blessed and enjoy making many new and happy memories.
